

Pittsburgh Post-Gazette

ONE OF AMERICA'S GREAT NEWSPAPERS

THURSDAY, JULY 7, 2011

Keith Srakocic/Associated Press

THE CORPS OF HIS HOPES Adrienne Ashtari, left, a nurse at the Skin Center in Shadyside, uses a laser on Wednesday in the first of the five or six treatments that will be needed to remove a tattoo from Christopher Guajardo's arm. Mr. Guajardo, 24, of Troy Hill, hopes to enlist in the Marine Corps but cannot because of the tattoo on the arm he would salute with. The Skin Center is providing removal treatment for military recruits at no cost during July.